Nomination Guidelines for SFRR-I Trevor Slater Award Lecture

SFRR-International Trevor Slater Award Lecture 2016

We are seeking nominations for the SFRR - International Trevor Slater Award Lecture to be given at the 23rd SFRBM and 18th SFRR Joint Meeting to be held in San Francisco, 16-19 September 2016. The Trevor Slater Award is the highest award of the Society and is awarded on a biennial basis to a scientist who, in the judgement of the International Committee, has made an outstanding contribution to the field. It was set up in memory of Trevor Slater, a founder and first President of the Society. The award consists of a medal and certificate, and it is a requirement that the recipient present a lecture at the Biennial meeting where the award is made.

The previous awardees are:

1994 – Mario Dianzani
1996 – Irwin Fridovich
1998 – Lars Ernster
2000 – Britton Chance
2002 – Earl Stadtman
2004 – Bernard Babior
2006 – Leopold Flohe
2008 – Christine Winterbourn
2010 – Etsuo Niki
2012 – Lester Packer
2014 – Helmut Sies

Once the nominations have been received, the SFRR Executive Committee and members of an International Committee will evaluate the nominations and select the Trevor Slater Award Lecturer for 2016.

Deadline for receipt of nominations by email is 15 January 2016.

Please email your nomination(s) together with their abbreviated CV and list of up to 10 peer-reviewed publications to Giovanni E. Mann (Email: giovanni.mann@kcl.ac.uk).
