Society for Free Radical Research International

Nomination Guidelines for SFRR-I Trevor Slater Award Lecture 2023

SFRR-International Trevor Slater Award Lecture 2023
We are seeking nominations for the SFRR – International Trevor Slater Award Lecture 2023 to be given at the 21st SFRR – International Meeting (hosted by SfRBM) in Punta del Este, Uruguay 15-18 November 2023. Further information is available from the meeting website: https://sfrbm.org

The Trevor Slater Award is the highest award of SFRR – International and is awarded on a biennial basis to a scientist who, in the judgment of the International Scientific Committee, has made an outstanding contribution to the field. It was set up in memory of Trevor Slater, a founder and first President of the Society. The award consists of a medal and certificate, and it is a requirement that the recipient present a lecture at the Biennial meeting where the award is made.

The previous awardees are listed below and further information is available from: http://www.sfrr.org/fellowships-and-awards

1994 – Mario Dianzani
1996 – Irwin Fridovich
1998 – Lars Ernster
2000 – Britton Chance
2002 – Earl Stadtman
2004 – Bernard Babior
2006 – Leopold Flohe
2008 – Christine Winterbourn
2010 – Etsuo Niki
2012 – Lester Packer
2014 – Helmut Sies
2016 – Kelvin J.A. Davies
2018 – Enrique Cadenas
2021 – Malcolm J. Jackson

Once the nominations have been received, the SFRR – International Executive Committee and members of an International Scientific Committee will evaluate these nominations and select the Trevor Slater Award Lecturer for 2023.

Deadline for receipt of nominations by email is 15 February 2023.

Please disseminate this 'Call for Nominations' to your regional SFRR membership.

Nomination(s) together with the nominee's abbreviated CV and list of up to 10 peer-reviewed publications should be emailed as a single PDF file to Patricia I. Oteiza (Email: poteiza@ucdavis.edu).

Prof. Patricia I. Oteiza
Secretary General SFRR – International